RISK STATEMENT: RRS 3 states: 'The responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or to continue to race is hers alone.' By participating in this event each competitor agrees and acknowledges that sailing is a potentially dangerous activity with inherent risks. These risks include strong winds and rough seas, sudden changes in weather, failure of equipment, boat handling errors, poor seamanship by other boats, loss of balance on an unstable platform and fatigue resulting in increased risk of injury. Inherent in the sport of sailing is the risk of permanent, catastrophic injury or death by drowning, trauma, hypothermia or other causes. The organizing authority will not accept any liability for material damage, illness, personal injury or death sustained in conjunction with or prior to, during, or after the regatta.

COVID-19: Based on public health considerations, it is recommended for competitors to follow Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), State of North Carolina, and Catawba Yacht Club policies that are in effect at the time of the regatta. The organizing authority cannot ensure competitors will follow guidelines for social distancing, mask wearing, etc. and will not accept liability for transmission of COVID-19 associated with the event.
